Looking for an excellent quality value-priced ultra-thirsty microfibre (aka microfiber) waffle-weave window / glass / drying towel in an easy to handle size? Then you've come to the right place! As the waffle weave microfibre towel moves across the surface, the thirst pockets trap liquids allowing additional time for the towel to absorb everything in its path. This towel is always ready to quickly and safely dry smaller areas, clean windows / mirrors, and effectively use with any runny liquid detailing products.
